Hike Report - Shoreline:

The sky was a pastel watercolor in pale blue and white, done by an Artist who is very good at skylscapes. We had two first-timers and one first-time-in-a-long-timer, and a pretty large crowd of just-about-every-timers. We walked straight out to the "Bench Mark" in the Palo Alto Baylands, with one stop along the way while we had our picture taken by a fellow hiker who happens to be a photographer. Visit the website for more pix!

Then back at the café, yours truly was treated to a cake and a rendition of "Happy Birthday" much to his surprise and delight. Thank you all. I wouldn't trade you guys or these Saturday morning hikes and coffee gatherings for anything!

Coming up: Next week is another Shoreline hike and Monday the 23rd is the FREE Financial Talk at 7:30 pm at the St Albert's Hospitality Center in Palo Alto. Get your RSVP in for that ASAP! Details on these events are below. For a complete rundown on all the current happenings, visit: <http://paloaltocatholic.org/aofa.html>. And keep checking back as updates are made often! And soon there'll be some pictures!
