Press Release:

San Mateo, CA: Hear the choir that is about to sing at Carnegie Hall! Viva la Musica choir, orchestra, and soloists perform Masses for Peace Saturday, May 16, 7:30 pm and Sunday, May 17, 3:00 pm at the historic Carrington Hall in Redwood City. Vivaldi's Gloria is effervescent and impassioned. Written for the stunningly accomplished virtuosi girls and women of a Venetian Ospedali del Pietá. This sacred Mass thrills from the rousing opening trumpet calls to the triumphal closing fugue. René Carlos Ochoa's Misa Del Pueblo is full of joy: Sacred music that will have you toe tapping, clapping, and, with the composer's blessing, even dancing in the aisles. A mariachi band, including the composer himself on guitar, accompanies the choir. The latest smash hit, A Mass for Peace, for choir and orchestra, by Welshman Karl Jenkins, gets its name from the anonymous, mysterious, 15th century get-under-your-skin song, The Armed Man. Guaranteed to raise the roof!

As part of their educational outreach, Viva la Musica has invited the Hillsdale High School Chamber Singers to collaborate in these performances.

Featured soloists are Deirdre Lobo D'Cunha, soprano, and Elspeth Frank, contralto.
