

Age of Aquinas

A Bay Area group for Christian Singles 40+

The Age of Aquinas began with a dance in January, 2004, which was themed the "Dawning of the Age of Aquinas", because it was a first event and because it was in January. At that time we were tentatively calling the group "Aquinasingles".

That first dance was a smashing success! Fr. George, our Pastor came and by the looks of the smile on his face, he had a good time. Next morning at mass he mentioned us. "There's a new group for singles that has formed," he said. "It's called the Age of Aquinas"...

Thus we were christened! The name of the group became "Age of Aquinas".

The group exists to provide an opportunity for Christian singles aged 40 and above (though nobody gets carded at the door), to gather in a social setting, meet others of their age group and marital status, and have fun and fellowship. We hold dances, movie outings, game nights, etc. We've gathered at San Jose Municipal Stadium for SJ Giants games. We meet at Shoreline Park every Saturday morning for a hike and coffee. The latest new outing is star parties, where a few bring telescopes and the rest come to view the stars and planets, and schmooze with new and old friends.

We're recruiting volunteers to help organize events. The time commitment is as little or as much as anyone would like to invest. We need individuals to plan and coordinate any of the above activities or others of their choosing. Some have come up with ideas for outings such as hikes, dinners, bowling, and miniature golf. We need hands and brains! If you have any of those, give us a call!

We have an email mailing list. To get on the list and hear about upcoming events, share ideas, or volunteer, write to:
